A Birthday Celebration for Jennifer & Philip

Saint Barthélemy

FRIDAY, MAY 1 — WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 2026

A NOTE FROM JOANNA

Welcome to St. Barths!

Jennifer and Philip, you are going to have the best time!

I can't think of anywhere more fun to celebrate a momentous birthday, and hopefully the first of many trips back!

Fouquet's is one of my favorites, especially for your first stay. The hillside setting, the views, the in-town location, such a good home base! A hotel rep will meet you at SBH on arrival, and from there, all you have to do is enjoy it.

The week is all lined up: beach club lunches at La Guérite, Nao, and Gypsea, dinners at the hot spots (including Bagatelle's iconic White Party), and a full day on the water on your private Axopar. And we have your Moke lined up and ready to go as well!

Your reservations and boat day are confirmed and ready to go. The concierge there is lovely and will help you with any additional planning or questions you might have.

And of course, if anything comes up while you're away, I'm always just a text or email away. Bonus points if you want to send me a bunch of pictures and make me incredibly jealous.

Wishing you the most wonderful trip!

Warmly,

Joanna

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

Saint Barthélemy

A few practical notes for your week in St. Barths — currency, tipping, language, and the rest of the small things that make travel feel easy.

PASSPORT & ENTRY

Valid passport required

St. Barths is a French overseas collectivity. US citizens do not need a visa for stays under 90 days. Make sure your passport is valid for at least three months beyond your return date.

TIPPING

Service is typically included

Restaurants include service (service compris). An extra 5–10% for excellent service is appreciated but not expected. $5–10 per service is gracious for drivers, beach attendants, and concierge.

TIME & WEATHER

AST · warm, dry, breezy in May

Atlantic Standard Time (UTC-4) — same as US Eastern in summer. Mid-May runs 78–85°F with low humidity and steady trade winds. Pack a light layer for evenings on the water.

CONNECTIVITY

US carriers cover the island

T-Mobile, AT&T, and Verizon all reach St. Barths — check your international plan before you leave. Wi-Fi is standard at Fouquet's and most restaurants.

CURRENCY & PAYMENTS

Euro is official; USD widely accepted

Most hotels, restaurants, and beach clubs take USD and major credit cards. Some smaller boutiques are euro-only. ATMs are available in Gustavia.

LANGUAGE

French, with English everywhere in tourism

French is the official language; English is widely spoken at hotels, restaurants, and beach clubs. A bonjour on arrival and merci on departure goes a long way.

POWER & PLUGS

220V · European Type C / E

Two-prong European outlets. Most modern phone and laptop chargers handle 220V automatically — check the fine print on the brick. Bring a Continental Europe adapter for anything single-voltage.

DRIVING THE MOKE

Right-hand traffic · narrow, winding roads

Your US driver's license is valid. Roads are steep, narrow, and scenic — drive slowly and confidently. The Moke is open-air; toss a light jacket and a hat in the back for windy stretches.

03

SUNDAY, MAY 3

Nao Beach & Le Beef Bar at Home

A barefoot Sunday with a quiet dinner steps from your suite

MORNING

FOUQUET'S

Slow morning at the suite

Breakfast in or out, the pool, or, if you are feeling adventurous, the concierge can arrange a paddleboard or short hike before the day warms up. Ask the concierge to call Nao first thing to request sunbeds for the afternoon.

2:30 PM

SAINT-JEAN BAY

Lunch at Nao Beach Club

CONFIRMED

Sundays at Nao are one of the island's most legendary beach parties. The vibe builds from a chic, leisurely lunch into a full-blown Sunday afternoon scene, with the resident DJ taking the energy from chill to electric as the day goes on. Lively, glamorous, and exactly the kind of barefoot Caribbean Sunday you came for. The concierge will reach out in the morning to request sunbeds, though they cannot be guaranteed in advance.

9:00 PM

IN THE HOTEL

Dinner at Le Beef Bar

CONFIRMED

Tonight's dinner is just steps from your suite at Fouquet's own Le Beef Bar. A perfect, lower-key Sunday after a sunny afternoon. World-class beef, an elegant room, and the easiest walk home of the week.
